Ella Cornett Letter 1

Alice and Darrell had gone with their mother to Eureka Springs, Arkansas. Their mother was undergoing treatment for her illness. Alice became ill, so her mother brought her back home to Kansas. Her mother died soon after, leaving little Alice feeling guilty for being the cause of her mother cutting short her treatment.

 Judge of the 30th Judicial District of Oklahoma

April 20 1925

Walter L. Clifford & Alice Christina Cornett were married. Alice had been staying with her sister Virgie and Virgie's husband, Clate Miller, when Clate's cousin, Walter came for a visit. Walter had asked his mother about Alice and claimed he "was going to marry her," before they even met. They met on March 24th, were engaged that evening, and were married less than a month later. Walter had gotten a job at a planing mill in Tulsa and rented a 2 room apartment. He had been living with his brother, Glen (and Georgie). Walter's last room & board payment included the Sunday breakfast after their wedding.

In the summer of 1925, they went into partnership in an open stand restaurant, the "Pig Stand" in Wewoka, Oklahoma With Walter's brother, Guy. Alice and Guy's wife, Esther, were the cooks. Walter & Alice slept on the couch in their living room. Cliff's mother had a couch in the dining room.

After leaving Wewoka, they stopped to see Walter's brother, Homer (and Nora) in Blackwell, Oklahoma. Homer wanted to open a stand, but Alice did not want to go in business with any of Pop's brothers ever again...

A new mother and 3 month old Bobby--April 25, 1926, Wichita, Kansas. They lived in a 3 room apartment. Their landlady let Pop set up a shop in the basement and fix up other rooms in lieu of their rent.

Alice Clifford

Tacoma, Washington--When Alice's health began to decline, her daughter moved her up to Tacoma to take care of her. Unfortunately, soon after, Doretta was diagnosed with Breast Cancer. Alice was moved to an assisted-living facility; finally ending up in Cottesmore Nursing Home in Gig Harbor Washington. I (Dana) would visit her every week or two with my baby boy, Sky. Near the end she did not know who we were, but would always tell us the story how her mother-in-law thought she was so extravagant buying shoes for her baby, Bobby. (We would always have to hunt her down because she was never in her room!)

Obituary: ALICE CORNETT CLIFFORD Beloved mother and grandmother, Alice was born, September 28, 1905 in Fredonia Kansas and died May 6, 2001 at Cottesmore of Life Care in Gig Harbor, Washington. She survived open heart surgery when she was 61 and was 95 when she died. Her greatest love was her children and grandchildren. When she came to visit, her first words were, "I didn't come to work. I came to play with the children." and always seemed to have a new game to teach them. She is survived by three children, Robert L. Clifford with wife, Pat; Jay B Clifford; and Doretta R. Kelley with husband, Dean. She had 10 grandchildren, 28 great grandchildren and 7 great-great grandchildren, and, until the youngest group were born, she remembered everyone's birthday. We love her and will miss her always.-- Cause of death: Congestive Heart Failure as a consequence of Hypertensive Cardiovascular Disease. Her ashes were strewn on Mt. Hood in Oregon by her son, Jay B and grandson, Scott.
